

X Games California 2023 Stacked with Gold Medalists For Ventura Debut Local Skateboarder Curren Caples Among Invited

Ventura, CA - May 31, 2023 - X Games California announces the first wave of Skateboard, BMX and Moto X athletes who have received their invite to the world's premiere action sports competition, taking place July 21 - 23 at the Ventura County Fairgrounds & Event Center. Among the invited athletes are gold medalists from X Games 2022 and X Games Chiba 2023 as well as world-class action sports athletes from around the globe. The full list of invited athletes is available at XGames.com.

Ventura native Curren Caples returns to X Games competition for the first time since taking Skateboard Park silver at X Games Austin 2016. A four-time X Games medalist, Curren began competing at X Games at just 14 years old. He has competed in both Street and Park at X Games and owns two gold medals in the latter. He'll seek his first Street medal at X Games California 2023. The son of former pro surfer Evan Caples, Curren is named after surf legend Tom Curren.

X Games California 2023 tickets are available now at XGames.com. In addition to general admission tickets, X Games offers several hospitality and travel packages which include meet and greets, behind the scenes access and more.

The first wave of X Games California 2023 invited athletes includes:

- Nyjah Huston (Davis, California) One of the most successful skateboarders in the world, Nyjah Huston is a 20-time X Games medalist and the winningest skater in Street League history. After ACL surgery late last summer, Huston returned to competition this spring but was unable to make the podium at X Games Japan in May.
- Sky Brown (Miyazaki, Japan) Action sports phenom Sky Brown has dominated the Women's Skateboard Park competition at X Games, winning back-to-back gold in 2021 and 2022. The 15-year-old also has an Olympic bronze medal in her trophy case, alongside podiums at Dew Tour, World Skate and more. In her spare time, Sky is also a pro surfer, released her own single in 2020 and even has her own Barbie doll.
- Rayssa Leal (Imperatriz, Brazil) Currently the most dominant Street skater in the world, Rayssa Leal is nearly unstoppable. In 2022, Rayssa won every Street League Skateboarding stop and earned her first X Games gold medal at X Games Chiba. This year, she won the first SLS stop in April and took another X Games Japan gold in May.
- Ryan Williams (Sunshine Coast, Australia) Once known strictly for his scooter skills, Ryan Williams quickly showed he's got what it takes to top the BMX ranks. Winning his first X Games gold in front of his hometown crowd at X Games Sydney 2018, R.Willy is now a five-time X Games champ.
- Axell Hodges (Encinitas, California) A 12-time X Games medalist, Axell Hodges played host to X Games competitions the past two years at his moto compound Slayground. Competing in three disciplines in 2022, he came away with a Best Whip silver, 110s gold and QuarterPipe High Air silver in a legendary battle with Palmdale's Colby Raha.

*PLEASE NOTE: The invited athlete list is constantly being updated and is subject to change.

The full list of first wave athletes invited to compete at X Games is available at XGames.com.

Additional information on all X Games 2023 will be forthcoming on XGames.com for fans or on XGamesMediaKit.com/ for media only.

About X Games

X Games has been the leader in action sports since 1995. The 2023 edition will feature the world's best action sports athletes competing for gold from July 21-23, 2023. Live event coverage will be broadcast on ESPN and ABC. Follow @xgames on social to get the most up-to-date event information and visit XGames.com.

Media Contacts:

Grace Coryell, X Games, 818-585-3696, grace.coryell@xgames.com Heather Krug, X Games, 310-463-1415, heather.krug@xgames.com